Take Heed all that read here. The Oregon Statewide Jural Assembly of The United States of America's Constitution circa 1819 thru 1859 1st Amendment Assembly and Oregon's Constitution of 1859 Article I Section 1 All power is inherent in the people.

Therefore: We have met and formed our Common Law Court(s) of record. In true common law, there are no obligatory rules or precedents. A common law court (a court of record) has unlimited jurisdiction and is independent of government. All external factors are, at best, advisory, not obligatory. The founding fathers understood all that, so do we.

1. power to fine or imprison for contempt
2. keeps a record of the proceedings
3. proceeding according to the common law (not statutes or codes)
4. the tribunal is independent of the magistrate (judge)
5. generally has a seal (optional)

It is noted all of these have been fulfilled. Our Amendment VII Court: In Suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury, shall be otherwise re-examined in any Court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law. Thus we claim original jurisdiction as our verdicts are without appeal as in Article III a supreme Court.

Note that a judge is a magistrate and is not the tribunal. The tribunal is either the sovereign himself, or a fully empowered jury (not paid by the government)

It is the finding of this court of record that these Petitions for redress of grievance be again served upon Kate Brown, Ron Wydon, Jeff Merkley and Susan Bonamici for the purpose intended.

With our Docket # 0107-1776
